

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE

Linda cannot quite believe it
Sending an email straight away
To let her Swans all know
And see what they have to say

This could be our moment
At Silver Swans Celebration Day
To perform would be truly wonderful
We should apply without delay

Our application is completed
Then came an email Linda's way
I hope you are all sitting down
As I have something to say

My Swans are off to London
To perform at the Royal Academy of Dance
What an opportunity this will be
A once in a lifetime chance

The choreography is sorted
Our first practice underway
Oh dear we will need extra lessons
To be ready for our special day

We decide to go for the weekend
And nothing will get in our way

Be it train strikes or traffic congestion

We'll get there come what may

We attended a class taught by Josh

This caused a bit of a stir

Linda had found her toy boy

But didn't want to share

We were late for our rehearsal

Having to make a mad dash

Jelly legs and bright lights

It was all over in a flash

Lunch, and then off to change

Costumes on, we are ready

Angela Rippon is here, says Frances

Let's hope our legs are steady

We are to perform first thing

Surely that's a good thing?

We are directed to the stage

And slowly unfurl our wings

Then just like that, it is over

We are feeling a little bit sad

But looking back over the weekend

We remember the fun we've all had

It's back to our class on Thursday

Along with our lovely friends

Happiness, fun and memoires shared

The joy of dancing never ends