Method of application	Application Form
Admissions Statement
In assessing applicants for admission to programmes of study, consideration will be given to the potential of the applicant to be successful in that programme of study. The Faculty of Education will consider each application in a fair, efficient and transparent manner and in accordance with the RAD Equality and Diversity Policy (2013) (available on the RAD website: https://www.rad.org.uk/about/work-with-us-1/hr-policies). Places on Faculty of Education (FoE) programmes are limited. Offers will be made to applicants with the highest academic and/or professional potential.
Disability Statement
The Faculty of Education welcomes applications from prospective students who may fall within the protected characteristic of disability as detailed in the Equality Act 2010, making reasonable and appropriate adjustments to the selection process, to ensure that they receive the same opportunity to be successful in their application. Applicants are therefore asked to consider the selection criteria, and if invited for interview / audition make the Admissions Officer aware of any adjustments that may be necessary.
Age
Teaching qualifications offered by the Faculty of Education are of UK Higher Education standard. Students who have followed the UK route to a Higher Education qualification will therefore normally be 18 years of age on admission. Where programmes of study involve a teaching placement, consideration will be given to the age of the applicant in relation to the legal requirements on individuals charged with the supervision of children.
