		Assessment At FHEQ Level 4, the reflective portfolio (DE405) and the case studies (DE403) provide opportunities to demonstrate information gathering, clear descriptive writing and basic analytical skills. All module assessments will measure thinking skills, the main difference being the specific mode of communication through writing. At FHEQ Level 5, the essay format becomes more dominant, requiring students to develop thinking and writing skills simultaneously.

	This culminates in the level of conceptual understanding and critical engagement required in the two compulsory module assessments at FHEQ Level 6 (DE601 and DE602). The dissertation at FHEQ Level 6 also provides an opportunity to demonstrate that these skills can be sustained thorough a substantial research project requiring in-depth critical enquiry.

Required reading materials increase in terms of quantity and complexity, ensuring that students are given the opportunity to analyse, debate and evaluate the thinking of others as well as their own. The nature of distance learning, together with the progression from tutor guided to more independent student- led study, ensures that time management and problem solving skills increase with each level. By FHEQ Level 6, students are ready to engage as independent learners responsible for their own learning and working in an effective partnership with module tutors. Reflective practice is encouraged through tasks which take the students' own experience and prior learning as a basis for development. Assessment The assessment of key skills is integrated, rather than discrete. Key skills progress from FHEQ Levels 4 to 6 with increased demands in terms of independent study and reflective practice. The range of written assessment modes requires time management, problem solving and communication skills. The taught component of DE401 provides an opportunity for students both to work and be formatively assessed as part of a group, whilst the array of written assignments provides similar opportunities for demonstration of increasing ICT skills. Within each module, specific key skills are identified in the module-specific assessment criteria.

20. Programme structure – including the route / pathway / field requirements, levels modules, credits, awards and further information on the mode of study.

Study hours for each module comprise of student contact in the form of tutoring hours, private study and assessment.
- The Dissertation module (45 credits) takes place across Semesters 1 and 2 during the final year at Level 6.
- Students are required to achieve 120 credits at each level of study.
- The minimum pass mark is 40%.
- In order to achieve the BA (Hons) Dance Education students must achieve a total of 360 credits of which 120 must be at FHEQ Level 6.

External/quest teaching:

On occasion, the Faculty of Education contracts external tutors with professional/industry-related experience. Any such contributions are formally approved by the Dean of the Faculty of Education and a formal contract is agreed and issued.

22. Criteria for admission

Admissions criteria for entry at FHEQ Level 4 are as follows:

- Three GCE A-Level passes (Grades B, B, C) or equivalent (e.g. International Baccalaureate, BTEC National and Higher National Diplomas and Certificates, Abitur, Lyceum Apolytirio) and;
- RAD Intermediate level or equivalent dance ability in any dance genre (not including circus arts or acrobatics)

Applicants for whom English is a second language will be required to provide evidence of a competent use of the English language. This evidence may be in the form of a recently achieved, recognised English language proficiency test, for example: a score of 6.5 or more, in all sections, using the academic International English Language Testing System (IELTS).

An applicant who does not hold appropriate entry requirements but whose application indicates that s/he may be a suitable candidate for the programme is required to complete a Concessionary Entry Task to demonstrate the ability to undertake study at the level for which application has been made. (Further information is available from Registry on request).

Although applications for Accreditation of Prior Learning may be received at the same time as an application for admission to a programme of study, the two processes must be considered separately. Credit may be considered in respect of Prior Certificated or Prior Experiential Learning. Applications will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis in accordance with the Faculty of Education Accreditation of Prior Learning Policy and credit given for relevant skills and experience already gained. #### 25. Quality management – indications of quality and the methods for evaluating and improving quality

Quality assurance (QA) processes are informed by and responsive to external governance as dictated by the QAA, OFSTED and the National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL).

Management of FoE QA process is governed internally by committee, and through various reporting lines to the validating university, which also reviews the quality of teaching; programme design and development, assessment, internal and external validation, student feedback; and student experience. All staff engage in research and professional engagement to keep abreast of subject knowledge and pedagogy. All new staff receive comprehensive induction and are supported in their first year of appointment by more experienced tutors. All staff undergo regular peer review of their teaching and annual appraisal which includes review of research interests. In addition, regular INSET and FoE Planning Days provide opportunities for ensuring all staff are fully conversant with QA.

Programme design is maintained and developed by systematic review of module content and programme specifications against assessment and moderation, student performance, External Examiner reports, student and staff feedback on completion of each module and again at the end of the programme. Each programme undergoes an Annual Programme Review (APR) from which action points are drawn for implementation/review in the next academic year. APR reports are submitted to the FoE's Head of Quality Assurance who submits an over-arching annual report to the validating university.
