

Fees

Programme fees are not normally refundable. Please read the information below regarding withdrawals and suspension of studies. Students will ultimately be liable for all tuition fees even if a third party is paying a part or the full amount.

Withdrawal

Students are required to notify Registry of an intention to withdraw by completing and returning the withdrawal form as early as possible. Please contact registry@rad.org.uk for further details.

If you are a new student, and your withdrawal form is received within four weeks of the start of the programme you will not be required to pay tuition fees and any tuition fees paid in advance, will be refunded.

If you wish to withdraw during the academic year, your liability for fees will depend on the date by which the withdrawal form is received:

- From the fifth week of the programme to 31st March – 1st instalment (50% of annual fee)
- From 1 April to 30th June – 1st and 2nd instalment (75% of annual fee)
- From 1 July onwards – 1st, 2nd and 3rd instalment (100% of annual fee)

If you are requested to withdraw from the programme by the Director of Education on academic grounds, a refund will be made for any outstanding modules where fees have been paid in advance. If you are requested to withdraw for reasons in relation to your conduct, no refund will be given.

If you wish to withdraw at the end of the year you must submit the appropriate paperwork by 30 September, otherwise you will be liable for the following year's fees.

Suspension of Studies

Students are required to notify Registry of an intention to suspend their studies by completing and returning the suspension of studies form at the earliest opportunity. Students can only suspend their studies once and for no more than one year.

If you wish to suspend your studies, you must apply within four weeks of the start of the year. Applications will only be considered after this point if there are extenuating circumstances.

An administration fee of £200 will normally be charged to enact a suspension of studies. On return from suspension of study, you will be charged the fee rate of the cohort to which you originally enrolled. Once a request for a suspension has been made, you will have a further four weeks to return the completed documentation and pay the suspension fee.

Payment Details

The programme consists of four modules, studied over two years. Students are invoiced prior to the start of each calendar year. The invoice is for each year is 50% of the total tuition fee for the whole programme. Each year's invoice must be paid in three instalments by the dates shown and proportions show below.

Tuition Payment Structure per Invoice
Instalment	Payment Deadline	% of invoiced tuition fee due
1	1 st December	50%
2	1 st April	25%
3	1 st July	25%

Students may pay before these dates. No programme materials will be available until the payment of the appropriate instalment has been received. No extensions will be given where a student's study time is reduced due to late receipt of payment.

The Academy reserves the right to charge interest at 1.5% above the Bank of England base rate in the case of late payment. It is a requirement of the Royal Academy of Dance that all fees must be settled before a successful student can graduate.

Methods of Payment

You may choose one of the following methods, remembering to quote your Account Reference and your Invoice Number for any type of payment:

By Credit/Debit Card	You may pay by Visa/MasterCard or alternatively by Debit Card/Maestro/Connect if you live in the UK.
